Family Disaster Plan and Personal Survival Guide

Family Disaster Plan and Personal Survival Guide:

Your family may not be together when disaster strikes. It is important to plan in advance. How will you contact one another? How will you get back together? What will you do in different situations? The Family Disaster Plan is a template and guide that will help you prepare for and survive a disaster. The plan will help you identify the following: exit routes in your residence, reunion locations, utility shutoffs, out-of-area contacts, emergency supplies you should have on hand, and a multitude of other information that will help you in a disaster. The guide is available in English, Spanish, Tagalog, and Vietnamese at ReadySanDiego.org.

AlertSanDiego:

AlertSanDiego, San Diego County's mass notification system, sends current emergency notifications to your registered cell phone, Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) phone, and email address. Listed and unlisted landlines are already registered in AlertSanDiego. Registering your cell phone or VoIP phone makes it more likely that you will receive an emergency notification. For those without a landline, registering with AlertSanDiego helps ensure you receive an emergency notification. To ensure that the community is better notified and prepared for a disaster, we urge all San Diego County residents to register online for AlertSanDiego. Register today at ReadySanDiego.org.

Wildfire Preparedness Guide:

The Wildfire Preparedness Guide provides information on how to better safeguard your family, home, and possessions. It includes steps on how you can create defensible space around your house with examples of fire-resistant plants and trees. The guide also outlines various modifications that can be made to your home's exterior to make it less vulnerable to burning embers. To download your copy and learn more about wildfire preparedness visit the Wildfire Public Awareness Campaign Section of ReadySanDiego.org.

Other Emergency Preparedness Information:

At ReadySanDiego.org you can find information on preparing for disasters, including wildfires, earthquakes, floods, tsunamis and terrorist attacks. Games in the Kids Section educate children on how to be prepared. The website also includes information on how to protect your pets, and useful tips and resources for businesses, families, and schools.
